Clearly.

From your very first sketch to your final exhibition, Whitecliffe's Bachelor of Fine Arts program gives you the clarity to find, and refine, your unique artistic voice. Through dedicated studio time, one-on-one mentoring with our faculty, and critical context sessions, you'll learn to see your ideas with fresh eyes and present them with confidence.

Creatively.

Experimentation is at the heart of everything you do. Whether you're crafting light and shadow in Photography & Media Arts, sculpting form in Materials & Processes, or pushing boundaries in interdisciplinary studios, you'll be encouraged to break rules, embrace happy accidents, and turn bold concepts into compelling work.

Yours.

This is your studio, your journey, and your story. Over three years you'll craft a cohesive body of work - from the foundational skills to the final exhibition. By graduation, you'll have that portfolio and a personal practice that is ready for galleries, residencies, or postgraduate study.

We're one of Aotearoa New Zealand's most recognised and respected art schools. And we're proud of that. But this flyer is just a taster of what's on offer.

If you want any more information - please pick up a prospectus or you can book a tour or apply online.

If you have any questions - give us a call.

Applications are now open.

Ready?

We can't wait to see what you'll create.
